Tariff of Banking Fees and Commissions for Clients in Poland ("Tariff")

Effective from August 1st, 2020

1. GENERAL INFORMATION

- 1.1. This Tariff of Banking Fees and Commissions, hereinafter referred to as "Tariff", forms an integral part of the Bank Account Agreement and the Service Agreement and sets out the amounts of fees and commissions for banking services and other services ordered to be performed by CaixaBank and the rules for their calculation and charging by the Bank. The Tariff encompasses services provided to:
 - 1.1.1. a legal person,
 - 1.1.2. an organisational unit without legal personality granted legal capacity by a legal act,
 - 1.1.3. a self-employed natural person, including a natural person who is an entrepreneur within the meaning of Polish law.
- 1.2. The Tariff is a standard contract, within the meaning of Article 384 of the Civil Code, and constitutes an integral part of the Bank Account Agreement and the Regulations.
- 1.3. CaixaBank shall make this Tariff available to the Account Holder in the following manner:
 - 1.3.1. in electronic form in PDF format on the CaixaBank Website in a way that allows copying, storage and reproduction of the Tariff by the Account Holder,
 - 1.3.2. in addition, if the Bank Account Agreement provides so, by delivering the Tariff to the Account Holder prior to the conclusion of the Bank Account Agreement.
 - 1.3.3. Notwithstanding the binding nature of the Tariff under Article 384 of the Civil Code, CaixaBank may request that the Account Holder additionally accept the Tariff by signing it. When signed by CaixaBank and the Account Holder, the Tariff becomes a written attachment to the Bank Account Agreement and unless the Parties decide otherwise, becomes a written attachment to each subsequent Bank Account Agreement that includes references to the Tariff.
- 1.4. Definitions and words capitalised in the Tariff have the same meaning as assigned to them in the Regulations.
